

Bishop Kettler recognizes the steady and faithful work of our Catholic school principals, and is grateful for their feedback in how to keep our schools safe during this omicron variant surge. Principals have been provided amended guidance to allow more flexibility in responding to COVID-19 in each school community.