SUMMER GATHERING 2025
Local Study Day for Parish Leaders

Dare to Hope

Planning for a Vital Church

ST. JOHN NEUMANN PARISH
EAGAN, MN, JULY 22

The Diocesan Planners' Network invites local and regional clergy, trustees, parish staff, and council members to a local study day on Tuesday, July 22nd. This day, designed just for those guiding vision at a parish level, is part of a three-day conference for diocesan-level planners from across the United States. Interact with professionals working in the field across the region and the country to discuss synodality and our hopes for a Church full of vitality. We'll focus on fresh research into parish vitality, especially in diverse communities and have special breakout sessions geared toward fostering a vibrant parish life. Count on a day of camaraderie, prayer, networking, and formation!
